

A School Agreements

Welcome to A School, a different (and awesome!) kind of salon business education community.

To keep our super-secret, safe, and sacred space, practice healthy boundaries, and build respect and trust with each other, these are our agreements that model many of the teachings in A School.

- We practice healthy boundaries, kindness, respect, and compassion.
- We seek context before lending advice or solutions.
- We allow folks to have their own experiences and processes in their own time.
- We understand that trust and safety are the foundation of this group, and in having that, we can share freely, safely, and vulnerably.

A School Agreements

- 1. Please keep all A School content within A School; this includes the names of our members and discussions in our group. This is a safe, sacred space built on trust, respect, and healthy boundaries.
- 2. We encourage you to both ask questions and lend your wisdom and advice to others in our Facebook group. We ask that you seek context before sharing advice. This is how the learning happens.
- 3. Please do NOT share anything commercial or anything related to products or services you offer in our Facebook group unless we ask you to share. This helps keep our group focused on why you joined A School.

A School Agreements

4. Please be kind, and respectful, practice healthy boundaries, and connect with others you meet in A School outside of A School. This is an awesome way to build community, relationships, and support.

A note about social breaks and our Facebook Group

We understand some members take breaks or choose not to be on Facebook at all. We get it. We do that too. However, you can engage in our Facebook group without ever viewing your newsfeed, notifications, or posts. It takes a little discipline and is so worth it. No matter what, your mental wellness comes first, always. And you can always follow our A School Instagram to keep in touch!

Thank you for respecting each other, our group, yourself, and our agreements. We are so grateful and honored to serve you.

In service to you with gratitude & love- Nina
