

Optimizing Your A School Experience

A School is designed to provide you with live, ongoing support so you never feel alone in your journey and have a safe place to come when you are needing advice, wisdom, support, and love.

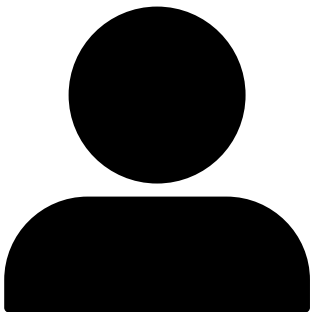

The time you invest in A School depends on your objectives and desired outcomes and it will change from time to time because life and business change.

Members have different objectives and outcomes dependent upon where they are with their businesses and life, thus, there is no right or wrong way to do A School.

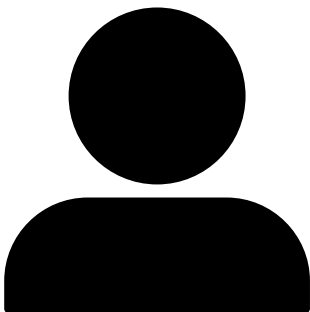

Member Type 1

Learning, growing your brand, getting focused and wanting a ton of support is your top priority

Member Type 2

You've been in A School a while or already feel confident with your business and brand and desire community support and access to the wisdom and experience of our group

Member Type 3

You switch between Type 1 and 2. We have several A School members who have been in our program for years, thus being Member Type 3

Learning and growing is your top priority

2 hours per month to either attend a Workshop LIVE or view Workshop replays and for actions you choose to take from the Workshop

2 hours per month to join Office Hours LIVE on Facebook and participate in Marketing Labs

1 hour per month to engage in our Facebook group, support other members, participate in Solution Sessions, Check-In's, ask questions

Looking for ongoing group support and wisdom

1 hour per month to engage in our Facebook group, support other members, participate in Solution Sessions, Check-In's, and ask questions

1 hour per month to join Office Hours LIVE on Facebook

Tips On How To Create Space and Time

Scheduling time for the Workshop dates in advance and attending them LIVE helps keep you on track and helps you learn

Scheduling time to check in with our Facebook group helps you stay focused, allows you to learn, and provide your wisdom and support to other members

Scheduling reading time, learning time, working time each week helps you stay focused on your objectives and outcomes

Requesting a custom curriculum, based on your needs, will allow you to stay focused on the topics that are important to you and your business